

LIVES WINTER SCHOOL ON LIFE COURSE 2013

The LIVES Life Course Winter School is a one-week intensive program on life course research. These interdisciplinary workshops (drawing from sociology, social psychology, life-span psychology, social demography, social policy) will occur in small groups. Each of these collaborative research workshops will be led by three experts, with groups of 6 to 8 students in a beautiful setting: the Swiss Alps.

WORKSHOPS TOPICS - MARCH 23-30, 2013 - HÔTEL DES DIABLERETS (CH)

1

Perceptions of the life course in Europe: age, gender and generation norms

- Richard Settersten
- Dario Spini
- Véronique Eicher

2

Shifting family ties and ambivalence in later life: a life course perspective

- Ingrid Connidis
- Laura Bernardi
- Eric Widmer

3

Life course transitions: education, work and unemployment

- Walter Heinz
- Benedikt Rogge
- Félix Bühlmann

ORGANIZED BY A CONSORTIUM OF FOUR RESEARCH CENTERS

Swiss National Center of Competence in Research LIVES, University of Lausanne & University of Geneva (CH)

Hallie Ford Center for Healthy Children & Families, Oregon State University (USA)

Bremen International Graduate School of Social Sciences (BIGSSS), University of Bremen (D)

Centre for Population, Aging and Health, Western University (CA)

STEERING COMMITTEE

Laura Bernardi	University of Lausanne
Walter Heinz	University of Bremen
Julie McMullin	Western University, Canada
Michel Oris	University of Geneva
Richard Settersten	Oregon State University
Dario Spini	University of Lausanne
Delphine Fagot	University of Geneva

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Venue	Hôtel des Sources, Les Diablerets (Switzerland)
Tuition	500 CHF (420 EUR or 525 USD)
Application	Motivation letter, resume, thesis project abstract
Registration deadline	September 30, 2012
Contacts	Delphine Fagot, LIVES Doctoral Program Officer and co-organizer, delphine.fagot@unige.ch

